THE PHILOSOPHICAL REVIEW

EDITED BY

J. G. SCHURMAN

J. E. CREIGHTON and JAMES SETH

The REVIEW is a bi-monthly journal devoted to the interests of the philosophical sciences: Logic, Psychology, Ethics, Aesthetics, Metaphysics, and the Philosophy of Religion. It has now completed its ninth year, and is recognized both at home and abroad as the representative philosophical journal of America. The terms of its endowment require that it shall be an absolutely free organ of contemporary philosophy.

The REVIEW usually contains 112 pages. About one-half of the space of each number is given to original articles and discussions. The remainder includes carefully prepared critical reviews of the most important books, classified summaries of articles appearing in the leading American and European philosophical magazines, prompt and trustworthy accounts of the contents and character of new books, and notes of general interest regarding philosophers and the progress of philosophy. Special attention is directed to the classified summaries which enable a reader of the REVIEW to learn, at a minimum of trouble, labor, and expense, what results and conclusions, bearing on the subject in which he is specially interested, are appearing from time to time in the other philosophical periodicals.

Articles intended for publication, books for review, exchanges, and all correspondence in reference to these, should be addressed to Professor J. E. Creighton, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y. Authors of newly published philosophical works are requested to send a brief account of their scope and content for publication. Subscriptions may be forwarded, when more convenient, through any of the publisher's European agents mentioned on the first cover page, but otherwise all business communications should be addressed to

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY,

41 N. Queen St., Lancaster, Pa., or 66 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Yearly Subscriptions, $3.00 (12s. 6d.); Single numbers, 60 cents (3s. net).
